

RETURN ON RELATIONSHIPS

Our website reaches 58,000 unique visitors per month. They visit weekly to keep up with our event calendar, ask Jim questions, read the latest industry news, and view a total of 300,000 pages. These aren't your average visitors. They are the decision makers and innovators of the event planning industry and corporate planners looking for their next venue or event trend, marketing professionals seeking to launch products, sales directors planning retreats and CEO's of corporations from New York to Virginia. Their experience on our site is our primary focus so aside from one roadblock and one run of site banner advertiser, advertising is primarily organic.
